WHEREAS, Saturday, October 4, 1975, marks the entry into the state of marital bliss of Nancy [illegible] McConnell and Steven M. Davis; and,

WHEREAS, The ceremony uniting Nancy and Steven in matrimony will take place at Two O'Clock in the afternoon at the Chapel of Middlesex School, Concord, Massachusetts; and,

WHEREAS, Nancy and Steven are fine young citizens whom we are very proud to have employed in South Dakota State Government; Nancy as a Policy Analyst with the State Planning Bureau, and Steven as a Special Assistant in the Office of the Governor; and,

WHEREAS, Steven began his employment with State Government in June of 1971, as a Research Assistant in the Office of the Governor, subsequently served the State as Energy Policy Officer, and then rejoined the Governor's staff as Special Assistant; and,

WHEREAS, I am deeply appreciative of Steven's enthusiasm in giving so generously of his time and talent to be of service to me during my past two election campaigns; and,

WHEREAS, Steven's delightful sense of humor and cheerful disposition make the work day brighter; and,

WHEREAS, Steven and Nancy are simply two great human beings, who it is my pleasure to call "friends"; and,

WHEREAS, My wife, Nancy, and I want to wish Steven and Nancy the best of everything as they embark upon their married life; and,

WHEREAS, The marriage of Nancy and Steven is worthy of public recognition in the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor take note of this special day;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, October 4, 1975, to

STEVEN [illegible] NANCY [illegible]

In the State of South Dakota, [illegible] to join with them in celebration of [illegible] day.

IN [illegible] WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, In Pierre, the Capital City, this 1st Day Of October, In the Year Of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Five
